

St. Clare's, Oxford

— An International Education —

EXPLORING THE LINKS BETWEEN CAS AND TOK

A Category 3 Workshop for IB Diploma teachers

Having run the programme since 1977, St. Clare's, Oxford is England's longest established provider of the IB Diploma.

The IB Institute has been running "in cooperation" workshops since 2002. This Category 3 workshop will present :

A theoretical and practical approach to developing the links between TOK and CAS and how they support each other

Workshop presenters:

Bill Roberts and Suzanna Agostini

Dates : Feb 15th - 18th 2012

Wednesday 15th February
registration @1830

Saturday 18th February departure @ 1500

Booking information :

www.stclares.ac.uk/ibteachers

Target audience

The workshop is intended for experienced teachers and coordinators of TOK and CAS. Ideally schools could send a pair of teachers to this workshop - one from CAS and one from TOK.

Fee for one (TOK or CAS): £645

Fee for two (TOK and CAS): £985

Features

- small, informal groups
- IB approved leaders
- lively social programme
- maximum group size 12
- large discount for group booking
- excellent food

Contact:

David Fowkes

Director, IB Institute
St. Clare's, Oxford,
139, Banbury Road,
Oxford OX2 7AL
david.fowkes@stclares.ac.uk
01865 552031
07771810504

Registration & accommodation:

www.stclares.ac.uk/ibteachers

This workshop aims to:

- increase the holistic knowledge of CAS coordinators and TOK teachers
- consider the role of reflection in TOK and CAS and the link between them
- identify and explore relevant styles of thinking
- identify CAS learning opportunities for TOK
- consider experiential learning
- relate ethical knowledge from TOK to situations in CAS
- make a 'product' tailored to the participants' schools and needs

Full details of workshop content can be found on Bill and Susanna's website at www.tokandcas.co.uk