

St Clare's Fantasy in Oxford - Sample Timetable

TIME	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY
09:00 09:55	Welcome to Oxford Programme overview and orientation Fluency in English	Oxford's literary links Explore Oxford's literary connections past and present, from Lord of the Rings to Harry Potter Fluency in English	In character Explore Philip Pullman's use of fantasy daemons Literary Analysis	A kind of muggle Read to discover the magical and muggle worlds within Harry Potter Reading Circles	A work of (literary) art Learn how to curate an exhibition based on a piece of literature for The Story Museum, Oxford Guest Workshop
10:00 10:55	Orientation An introduction to Activities and Welfare St Clare's & International Culture		His Dark Materials Discuss the daemons in the new BBC series of Pullman's most famous fantasy trilogy Film Studies	Magical or muggle? Compare the magical and non-magical worlds within Harry Potter Literary Analysis	A museum piece A collaborative project creating a Philip Pullman or JK Rowling exhibition Groupwork Skills
----- Break -----
11:30 13:00 (12:30 Fri)	Internationalism Getting to know your class and their cultures St Clare's & International Culture	Ghost writer Discover your guest author through an interactive research race Guest Speaker Preparation	Mapping & Makepeace Lyra's imaginary Oxford and where it takes you in reality Study Visit Preparation	Harry Potter in Oxford Discover Oxford's links to Harry Potter ahead of your study visit Study Visit Preparation	Creative journalism Create a virtual review of your exhibitions English & Media
----- Lunch -----
14:00 14:55	Explore Literary Oxford Explore the locations of Oxford's literary and film connections from JRR Tolkien to CS Lewis and JK Rowling Excursion	Oxford ambitions Enjoy an interactive talk from a popular Oxford-based author including a reading of their work Guest Speaker	Walk Lyra's Oxford Walk the trail along the river from the Abbey of Philip Pullman's Book of Dust to the canal of Lyra's Oxford Study Visit	The Harry Potter trail Visit Christ Church, University of Oxford, inspiration for the Great Hall in the Harry Potter films Study Visit	Blenheim Palace Oxford stately home and film location to scenes of Harry Potter, Cinderella and James Bond Example Optional Excursion
15:00 15:55					