

St Clare's Fantasy Literature in Oxford - Sample Timetable

TIME	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY
09:00 09:55	Orientation An introduction to Activities and Welfare at St Clare's St Clare's & International Culture	A synopsis An introduction to CS Lewis and the world of Narnia English Literature	A cast of characters Discuss the introduction of the main characters in The Silver Chair Reading Circles	Evil in human form Explore CS Lewis's vision of evil in The Silver Chair and its literary inspirations Literary Analysis	Your fantasy: your reality Bring all the elements of your fantasy world together inspired by CS Lewis' Oxford Creative Writing Workshop
10:00 10:55	Welcome to Oxford! Programme overview and getting to know your class & cultures St Clare's & International Culture	The inner meaning is carefully hidden... An introduction to CS Lewis' The Silver Chair Reading Circles	Character development Create characters for your own fantasy world Creative Writing Workshop	Acting out Bring CS Lewis' The Silver Chair to life as a script to be performed Reading Circles
----- Break -----
11:30 13:00 (12:30 Fri)	Oxford's literary links Explore fantasy fiction in Oxford Fluency in English	Territory mapping Start to explore your own inner map of caves, marches, mountains, rivers, and visions Visual Arts	A visual world Take inspiration from Pauline Baynes and other artists and illustrators Visual Arts	Sound effects What do your characters sound like? How do they enchant or resist? Creative Writing Workshop	Podcasting Create your own podcast reading of CS Lewis' The Silver Chair Oral Presentation Skills
----- Lunch -----
14:00 14:55	Explore Literary Oxford Explore the locations of Oxford's literary and film connections from JRR Tolkien to CS Lewis and JK Rowling Excursion	Oxford ambitions Enjoy an interactive talk from Dr Michael Ward, a world expert on CS Lewis and Narnia Guest Speaker TBC	Magdalen College Visit sites connected with CS Lewis in Oxford such as Magdalen College, the University Church, the Eagle and Child pub, his house at "the Kilns" Study Visit	The Silver Chair Explore CS Lewis' world through the BBC's The Silver Chair and clips from the recent Narnia films Film Studies	Blenheim Palace Oxford stately home and film location to scenes of Harry Potter, Cinderella and James Bond Example Optional Excursion
15:00 15:55					