JOB SPECIFICATION
Title of Post	Teacher of Business Management
Purpose of Role	To teach Business Management to students on the International Baccalaureate Diploma programme (Year 12/13) and on our Pre-IB programme (Year 11).
Overview	Humanities (known as Individuals & Societies subjects within the IB) are an integral part of the IB diploma programme. All students must take at least one humanities subject, although many opt to take two. Business Management is a popular subject which has been offered at higher level for many years at the college, and the intention is to offer it at standard level from September 2022. IB Business Management results are consistently excellent. Class size is a maximum of 15 students, and most sets have fewer than 12. The students are invariably well-behaved and keen to learn. There are currently around 230 students across the two IB diploma year-groups. The Pre-IB course is a college-devised programme which offers up to one year of preparation for the IB diploma in a range of subjects, with particular focus on improving English. Whilst some students come for the whole year, others join the programme for one or two terms. The Pre-IB humanities course has a trimester structure, with students choosing a different subject each trimester. Humanities classes have 4 allocated hours per week, and trimesters are either 11 or 12 weeks long. Students sit formal examinations at the end of each trimester, and the results provide guidance as to whether the subject will be a suitable choice in the IB diploma. Class sizes are a maximum of 15 students, although once again many sets are smaller. There are currently around 35 students enrolled in our Pre-IB programme. The successful candidate can expect to teach both courses. The ability to teach another Humanities subject such as Economics, History or Global Politics would be considered an advantage.
