1. Introduction

- 1.1 Terms and conditions: These terms and conditions together with the offer and /or confirmation letter as applicable form the basis of a legally binding contract between the Student and the College for the provision of educational services.
- 1.2 Documents referred to: Before accepting the offer of a place, the Student has had an opportunity to see any of the documents referred to in these Terms and Conditions.

2. Terminology

- 2.1 The Booking Date: means the date on which the Registration Fee is paid.
- 2.2 The College or We or Us: means St Clare's, Oxford as now or in the future constituted (and any successor). The College is constituted as a charitable company limited by guarantee.

- 2.3 The Course: means as applicable the University Foundation Programme, the Undergraduate Programme, English Plus Academic Subjects and the English Language Courses or any other course offered to adults by the College.
- 2.4 The Director of Studies: means the person appointed by the College as Director of Studies/Academic Director of the relevant Course.
- 2.5 The Course Fees: means the Course Fees as shown on the College website.
- 2.6 The Deposit: means the Deposit payable by the Student when accepting the offer of a place on the Course. The amount payable is as specified on the online application documentation for the Course concerned.
- 2.7 The Principal: means the Principal of the College. The Principal is responsible for the day-to-day running of the College. The expression Principal also refers to any person to whom the responsibilities of the Principal have been delegated.
- 2.8 The Registration Fee: means the Registration Fee payable to be considered for certain Courses. The amount payable is as specified on the online application documentation for the Course.
- 2.9 The Student: means the person named on the Registration/Application Form.
- 2.10 The Term/Semester: means the period between and including the first and last days of the relevant College term or semester.

3. Admission and entry to the College

- 3.1 Application and admission: Applicants will be considered as candidates for admission and entry to the College when the Registration/Application Form has been completed and returned to and (where applicable) the non-returnable Registration Fee paid. Admission will be subject to the availability of a place and the Student satisfying the admission requirements for the Course at the relevant time. Admission occurs when the offer of a place is accepted (for courses where offers of places are made). Entry occurs on the date when the Student attends the College for the first time under these terms and conditions.
- 3.2 Equality: The College welcomes staff and students from many different ethnic groups, backgrounds, and creeds. Human rights and freedoms are respected. We will do all that is reasonable to ensure that the College's culture, policies, and procedures are made accessible to students who have disabilities and to comply with our legal and moral responsibilities under equality legislation in order to accommodate the needs of applicants and students who have disabilities for which, after reasonable adjustments, we can cater adequately.
- 3.3 Offer of a place and deposit: Where the Course requires, the Deposit as shown on the application documentation for the Course will be payable within the time limits stated on the Course application documentation.
- 3.4 Immigration: It shall be the Students' responsibility at all times to ensure that they have the appropriate immigration permission to reside in the United Kingdom and to study at this College. If the Student is not given the appropriate immigration permission any Deposit and /or Course Fees paid will only be refunded if:

3.4.1 documentary evidence of the refusal by the UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) is sent to the College; and

3.4.2 the reason for the refusal is not because of any failure to comply with the UKVI visa application requirements.

4. Fees

4.1 Course Fees: may include alone or in combination any of the Registration Fee, Deposit, Tuition Fees, Accommodation Fees, Meal Package Fees or damage where the Student alone or with others has caused wilful loss or damage to College property or the property of any other person (fair wear and tear excluded) or late payment charges if incurred.

4.2 Payment of the Course Fees: Following Admission of the Student the College shall issue an invoice specifying the amount of Course Fees and the date before which they are to be paid. Subject to clause 4.3 below, the Student agrees to pay the Course Fees in full at least three weeks before Entry or the start of the Term/Semester. The exception to this is where the Booking Date is within 3 weeks of the start of the Course. In such cases the Course Fees will become immediately payable in full by the Student.

4.3 Payment of fees by a third party: Where a student is aged 18 or older, an agreement with a third party (such as an agent or the Student's parents or grandparents) to pay the Fees or any other sum due to the College does not release the Student from liability if the third-party defaults and does not affect the operation of any other of these terms and conditions unless an express release has been given in writing, signed by the Bursar. The College reserves the right to refuse a payment from a third party.

4.4 Refund or waiver: Course Fees will not be refunded or waived if:

4.4.1 the Student is absent through illness; or

4.4.2 a Term is shortened, or a vacation extended; or

4.4.3 the College is temporarily closed due to adverse weather conditions; or

4.4.4 for any reason other than exceptionally and at the sole discretion of the Principal in a case of genuine hardship; or

4.4.5 there is no legal liability under a court order or under the provisions of this agreement to make a refund.

refunds will be made only to the person who made the original booking and remitted only to the country from which the original payment was made.

See section 7 for information about the refund of Deposit and Course Fees. See also Section 8 for information about events beyond the control of the parties.

4.5 Exclusion for non-payment: The College reserves the right to exclude the Student on three days' written notice if Course Fees are overdue for payment. The College may withhold any information, character references or property while Course Fees remain overdue but will not do so in a way that would cause direct, identifiable, and unfair prejudice to the legitimate rights and interests of the Student.

4.6 Part payment: Any sum tendered that is less than the sum due and owing may be accepted by the College on account only.

- 4.7 Anti-money laundering: The College may need to obtain satisfactory evidence such as sight of a passport of the identity of a person who is paying Fees. The College cannot accept payments in cash in excess of £250.

5. Educational matters and pastoral care

- 5.1 Provision of education: The College will do all that is reasonable to provide an educational environment and teaching of a range, standard and quality which is suitable for each student. We will exercise reasonable care and skill in providing educational services for the Student but cannot guarantee that they will achieve their desired examination results or that results will be sufficient to gain entry to other educational establishments.
- 5.2 Organisation of the curriculum: We reserve the right to organise the curriculum and its delivery in a way which, in the professional judgement of the relevant Director of Studies, is most appropriate to the course as a whole. We will endeavour to inform the Student of changes and the reasons for them as soon as practicable. If the Student has specific requirements or concerns about any aspect of their education or progress, they should contact their teacher, or the relevant Director of Studies, as soon as possible.
- 5.3 Reports and references: Information supplied to the Student and others concerning the progress and character of the Student, and career prospects, and any references shall be given conscientiously and with all due care and skill but otherwise without liability on the part of the College.
- 5.4 Complaints: Any question, concern or complaint about the pastoral care or safety of a student or any educational issue or other matter connected to the College must be notified to the Director of Studies as soon as practicable in accordance with the International College Complaints Procedure.
- 5.5 Ethos: The ethos of the College is to foster good relationships between students and between members of staff and students. Bullying, harassment, victimisation, and discrimination will not be tolerated. The College and its staff will act fairly in relation to the Student, and we expect the same of the Student in relation to the College or its staff.
- 5.6 Under 18's: Students under the age of 18 will come into regular contact with other students over the age of 18 in class and during the leisure programme. This means that they may:
- 5.6.1 use course content and materials appropriate to this age group;
 - 5.6.2 enjoy considerable freedom and independence during free time until 23:00 each day, including going into Oxford city centre unsupervised and taking public transport;
 - 5.6.3 need special provision on excursions, visits and other activities organised by the college (such as separate accommodation, no consumption of alcohol, restrictions on entry to clubs etc.).
 - 5.6.4 Under 18's will stay with an approved homestay provider. It may be possible to move into one of the college residences for this age group, depending on availability.
 - 5.6.5 Curfew is 23:00 for this age group and is monitored with the support of the Welfare Officer.

5.7 Disclosures: The Student must, as soon as possible, disclose to the Director of Studies or the Accommodation and Welfare Officer in confidence:

5.7.1 any known medical condition, health problem or allergy affecting them;

5.7.2 any disability, special educational need or learning difficulty affecting them.

Medical care: The College nurse take decisions in the best interest of the Student. The nurse provides non-prescription medication for minor ailments or injuries; and may, with good reason, decide to refer the Student to a doctor or hospital for medical tests or treatment if he/she is unwell. The Student must comply with the College nurse's recommendations which may include a reasonable decision to send him/her home if unable to continue with the Course.

5.8 Medical examination: The College reserves the right to require the Student to provide a medical practitioner's note confirming that they are fit to attend the course at the College. This requirement is for the Student's safety. Failure to provide such a note will be a serious breach of discipline that could result in the dismissal of the Student from the course.

5.9 Confidentiality: The Student authorises the Principal to override their rights to confidentiality, and to impart confidential information on a "need to know" basis where necessary to safeguard the Student's welfare or to avert a perceived risk of serious harm to the Student or to another person at the College or to inform members of staff about the Student's particular needs.

5.10 Student's personal property: The Student is responsible for the security and safe use of all their personal property including money, mobile phones or devices, watches, computers, and for property lent to them by the College.

5.11 Insurance: The College maintains those insurances as required by law together with fee (where applicable) and travel insurances the cost of which are included in the Course Fees. Details of the fees and travel insurance cover can be found on the College's webpages for the International College. Students will be required to complete claim forms and provide supporting documentation in the event of a claim under the fees and travel policies.

5.12 Liability: Unless negligent or guilty of some other wrongdoing causing injury, loss or damage, the College does not accept responsibility for accidental injury or other loss caused to the Student or for loss or damage to property.

6. Behaviour and discipline

6.1 College regime: The Student accepts that the College will be run in accordance with the authorities delegated by the Governors to the Principal. The Principal is entitled to exercise a wide discretion in relation to the College's policies, rules and regime and will exercise those discretions in a reasonable and lawful manner, and with procedural fairness when the status of the Student is at issue.

6.2 Conduct and Attendance: We attach importance to courtesy, integrity, good manners, good discipline, and respect for the needs of others. The Student will take a full part in the activities of the College, will attend all classes, will be punctual, will work hard and will behave in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct and College policies. The College may also be required to report non-attendance to UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI).

6.3 Policies and Regulations: The policies and regulations for International College courses are available from the College. They include the College's current Student Code of Conduct. The Student is requested to read the policies and regulations carefully before accepting the offer of a place.

- 6.4 Investigative action: A complaint or rumour of misconduct will be investigated. The Student may be questioned, and all reasonable care will be taken to protect the Student's human rights and freedoms. Investigation of a complaint which could lead to the dismissal of the Student from the course shall be carried out in a fair and unbiased manner.
- 6.5 Divulging information: Except as required by law, the College and its staff shall not be required to divulge to the Student or others any confidential information or the identities of students or others who have given information which has led to the complaint or which the Principal has acquired during an investigation.
- 6.6 Drugs and alcohol: The Student may be given the opportunity to provide a biological sample under medical supervision if involvement with drugs is suspected.
- 6.7 Disciplinary policy: The College's current disciplinary policy is available to the Student in the Student Code of Conduct. The policy may undergo reasonable change from time to time but will not authorise any form of unlawful activity. The College operates a system of warnings which can lead to dismissal from the course.
- 6.8 Dismissal: The Student may be formally dismissed from the College if it is proved on the balance of probabilities that the Student has committed a very grave breach of discipline or a serious criminal offence, or has received the maximum number of warnings, as set out in the College's Disciplinary and Exclusions Policy. The Principal's decision to dismiss a Student shall be subject to a Review Hearing if requested by the Student. The Student will be given a copy of the Review procedure current at the time. The Student shall not be permitted to attend the College pending the outcome of the Review.
- 6.9 Fees after dismissal: If the Student is dismissed from the College, there will be no refund of the Deposit or of Course Fees.

7. Cancellation, withdrawal, and termination

- 7.1 Cancellation: means the cancellation of a place at the College which has been accepted by the Student and which occurs before they enter the College or where they do not enter the College. Please see clause 3.1 for details of when Entry to the College occurs. If the College has engaged the services of additional staff to teach the Student, the Student may be liable on cancellation to pay a proportion of the cost of such engagement. The College reserves the right to set off the Deposit against such costs.
- 7.2 Cancellation rights: If the offer of a place and its acceptance are both made entirely at distance by means of post or electronic communication without the Student meeting face to face with a member of the College staff during the contractual process, they may cancel this agreement at any time within 14 days of the date of the Booking Date. In such circumstances the Deposit will be refunded together with any Fees paid pro-rated if the College has provided any educational services under this agreement.
- 7.3 Deposit and Course Fees on Cancellation: Other than as provided for in clauses 4.4 and 7.2:
- 7.3.1 if notice of cancellation is received 3 weeks or less before the Course start date there will be no refund of the Deposit or the Course Fees.
- 7.3.2 if notice of cancellation is received by the College 8 weeks or less before the Course start date there will be no refund of the Deposit paid.

7.3.3 if notice of cancellation is received more than 8 weeks before the Course start date the Deposit will be refunded less an administration charge of £100.

7.3.4 Covid-19 additional measure: Your Deposit and Course Fees will be fully refunded up to 24 hours before you travel if the UK Government change the quarantine/travel status in your country at short notice; or you have proof of a positive Covid-19 test; or you have proof that you have to isolate because of Covid-19.

Cases of serious illness or genuine hardship may receive special consideration on written request if they are not otherwise covered by the fees and travel insurances.

7.4 Withdrawal: means the withdrawal of the Student from the Course at any time after Entry to the College. Please see clause 3.1 for details of when Entry to the College occurs.

7.5 Withdrawal by the Student: If the Student withdraws from the Course there shall be no refund of Course Fees. Cases of serious illness or genuine hardship may receive special consideration on written request.

7.6 Change or cancellation of accommodation or meal arrangements: A student wishing to change accommodation, cancel meals, or move out of St Clare's accommodation must give four weeks' written notice. A charge is made for changes or cancellations made without giving the required notice period.

7.7 Termination by the College: The College reserves the right to terminate this agreement immediately if:

7.7.1 The Student is in breach of the Student Code of Conduct for which the appropriate sanction is to require them to leave the College; or

7.7.2 Following consultation, and in the professional opinion of the Director of Studies, the Student's progress or attendance is not of the standard required to continue the Course; or 7.7.3 Course Fees have not been paid by the required date.

8. Events beyond the control of the parties

8.1 Force majeure: An event beyond the reasonable control of the parties to this agreement is a Force Majeure Event and shall include such events as a, fire, flood, storm, war, riot, civil unrest, act of terrorism, strikes, industrial disputes, outbreak of epidemic or pandemic of disease, failure of utility service or transportation.

8.2 Notification: If either party to this agreement is prevented from or delayed in carrying out its obligations under this agreement by a Force Majeure Event, that party shall immediately notify the other in writing and shall be excused from performing those obligations while the Force Majeure Event continues.

8.3 Continued force majeure: If a Force Majeure Event continues for a period greater than 90 days, the party who has provided notification under clause 8.2 above shall notify the other of the steps to be taken to ensure performance of this agreement.

- 8.4 Termination: If the Force Majeure Event continues for a total period greater than 120 days, the party in receipt of notification under clause 8.2 may terminate this agreement by providing at least three working days' notice in writing to the other party.

9. Data Protection

9.1 How We may use Personal Information: References, Confidentiality and Data Protection

9.1.1 We may provide a reference for the Student. We may supply information and a reference in respect of the Student to any educational institution which You propose the Student may attend. Any reference supplied by Us will be confidential. We will take care to ensure that all information that is supplied relating to the Student is accurate and any opinion given on his/her ability, aptitude for certain courses and character is fair. However, We cannot be responsible for any loss You or the Student is alleged to have suffered resulting from opinions reasonably given, or correct statements of fact contained, in any reference or report given by us.

9.1.2 We will need to use information relating to the Student, and to You, for certain purposes connected with the running of the College. This will include name, contact details, College records, photographs and video recordings, both whilst the Student is at the College and after he/she has left, for the purposes of:

- (i) managing relationships between the College and current students/parents and fulfilling our obligations under the contract with You;
- (ii) promoting the College to prospective students/parents;
- (iii) publicising the College's activities; and
- (iv) communicating with the College community and the body of alumni.

In respect of (ii), (iii) and (iv), this includes use of such information by the College in/on the College's prospectus (in whatever format or medium it is produced/made available), the College's websites and (where appropriate) the College's social media channels.

9.1.3 You are required to update us of changes to information held, or in circumstances relating to You and/or the Student. You must:

- (i) confirm (or update, if necessary), when requested, such information (and/or documentation) about (or relating to) You and/or the Student that is held by the College; and
- (ii) inform the College of any change to Your or the Student's circumstances (including, where applicable, in connection with the Student's entitlement to enter, reside and/or study in the United Kingdom), or to information about (or relating to) You or the Student that has previously been notified to the College, including relevant contact details.

9.1.4 As a Student Sponsor We need Your consent to us providing certain information to UKVI. In order to comply with our responsibilities as a licensed Student Sponsor under Tier 4 of the Home Office's points-based system for immigration purposes, You consent to us notifying and/or supplying information relating to You and/or the Student's right to enter, reside and/or study in the United Kingdom to the United Kingdom Visas and Immigration (UKVI) unit of the Home Office (and to do so whether We actually sponsor the Student or not).

- 9.1.5 We will send information (such as College reports) about the Student to both of You as a matter of course. You agree that those persons who have parental responsibility for the Student are entitled to receive certain information about the Student from the College (including College reports, correspondence and other materials relating to his or her progress, development and/or education generally). The College shall therefore disclose such information as a matter of routine to such persons unless the College is restricted from doing so by a court order (or similar direction) or by any other legal requirement or obligation (for example, under the Data Protection Act 1998 (as amended or superseded)).
- 9.1.6 Data Protection Law. The College will process personal data about You and the Student in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 (as amended or superseded, including from 25 May 2018 the General Data Protection Regulation) and other related legislation. We will process such personal data:
- (i) as set out in this Clause 9, and in the College's Privacy Notice' which is available on the College's websites] as may be amended from time to time;
 - (ii) in order to comply with any court order, request from or referral to an appropriate authority, or legal, regulatory or good practice requirement; and
 - (iii) to perform our obligations under this contract, and where otherwise reasonably necessary for the College's purposes

10. General contractual matters

- 10.1 Change: The College, like any other organisation, is likely to undergo a number of changes during the period of this agreement. For example, there may be changes in the staff, and in the premises, facilities, and their use and in the curriculum and the College Rules and procedures. In addition, there may be the need to undertake a corporate reorganisation exercise and / or a merger or change of ownership may be necessary. For these reasons, the benefit and burden of this agreement may be freely assigned by the College to another party at the discretion of the College.
- 10.2 Consumer rights: Care has been taken to use plain language in these terms and conditions and to explain its provisions. If any words alone or in combination infringe the consumer rights laws or any other provision of law, they shall be treated as severable and shall be replaced with words which give as near the original meaning as may be fair.
- 10.3 Consultation: It is not practicable to consult with the Student over every change that may take place. Whenever practicable, the College will use reasonable endeavours to ensure that the Student will be consulted and where possible given at least a Term's notice in writing of:
- 10.3.1 a change of ethos or culture; or
 - 10.3.2 a change in any physical aspect of the College which would have a significant effect on the Student's education; or
 - 10.3.3 a change of ownership of the College.
- 10.4 Information for students: We provide students and prospective students with information about the College, the Course, and the educational services we provide in good faith. This information may be contained in the College's prospectus, website, or other promotional literature or in statements made by staff or students during a visit or an open day. If the Student wishes to take account of the information provided to them when deciding whether to enter into this agreement, they should seek specific confirmation from the Director of Studies that the information is accurate before returning a completed acceptance form to the College.

- 10.5 Third party rights: Only the College and the Student are parties to this agreement. No person other than a party to this agreement shall have any rights to enforce any term of this agreement.
- 10.6 Interpretation: These terms and conditions supersede those previously in force and will be construed as a whole. Headings, unless required to make sense of the immediate context, are for ease of reading only and are not otherwise part of the terms and conditions.

Jurisdiction: This agreement was made at the College and it, together with each matter relating to the provision of educational services by the College, is governed exclusively by the law of England and Wales and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales.

The following section applies to students who will be / are accommodated in St Clare's college residences:

11. Agreement for Residences

This is an agreement between You and St Clare's, Oxford while you are living in our accommodation. You must agree to all the conditions before you can move into your room. These conditions include all our rules, policies, and procedures. It is important that you read them carefully. Please ask the Accommodation and Welfare Officer if anything is unclear to you.

Under this agreement:

- A. You want St Clare's, Oxford ("We" / "St Clare's") to provide accommodation and related Services;
- B. St Clare's agrees to provide accommodation and related Services to You on the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement;
- C. This Agreement consists of the following attachments: the Rules for Residences, the Charges for Residences, the Inventory.
- D. This Agreement is issued under Schedule 1 of the Housing Act 1988, which means that a tenancy granted by an education institution is not an 'assured shorthold tenancy', and that lettings to students do not protect the occupier who is studying at the college.

IT IS AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

12. Definitions and Interpretations

Booking Period	means the dates stated in Confirmation Letter, which can be changed with St Clare's agreement if You wish to stay for longer.
Building	means the college house stated in your Confirmation Letter.
Common Areas	means the areas of the Building that all the Residents can use. These include: the reception area, common room, laundry, bin stores, cycle stores, corridors, lifts, and staircases.
Common Facilities	means the shared kitchen, lounge, and corridor areas in the house.

Contract	means this agreement and related documents (the most recent version of the Confirmation Letter, House Rules, the List of Charges, the Inventory etc).
Director of Studies	means the Director of the St Clare's course that You are enrolled on.
Deposit	means a refundable deposit of £500.00 (five hundred pounds) held against non-payment of a legitimate charge (applies only to a Booking Period of more than six weeks).
Services	means the cleaning, housekeeping, maintenance and security detailed on the Student Portal.
Room	means the room or apartment allocated to you on arrival.
Parties	means St Clare's and You.
Premises	means the Rooms and Flats and Common Areas in the Building that St Clare's allows the Residents to use.
Resident(s)	means You and all the other registered students who are allowed to live in the house.
Student Portal	means the pages on the St Clare's website which relate to Your course.

13. Duration of Contract

We will i) allow You to use the Premises and ii) provide the Services during the Booking Period if You make the payments set out in this agreement and You comply with all its terms.

14. Previous Communication

This Contract is the entire agreement and replaces all previous agreements for accommodation between You and St Clare's.

15. Instructions and Approvals

There can be no changes to the terms of this contract unless they have been agreed in writing between You and St Clare's.

16. Responsibility

- 16.1 You must comply with the St Clare's House Rules and Regulations.
- 16.2 You must make sure that the Premises are kept and returned to St Clare's in good condition together with all of the items listed in the Inventory on your arrival. You are responsible for any damage caused to the Premises or the Building by You or the Residents either solely or jointly. You must pay us promptly for the cost of repair or replacement. However, You are not responsible for fair wear and tear caused by normal use of the Premises.
- 16.3 You are responsible for your own property. We do not accept responsibility or liability for any loss of, or damage to, any property brought onto the Premises by You or by any other person, except in the case of negligence or an act or omission by St Clare's or its agents.

17. Arrivals and Departures

- 17.1 You may use the Premises from 14:00 on the first day of the Booking Period, subject to clauses 27, 28 and 29.
- 17.2 You must vacate the Premises by 10:00 on the final day of the Booking Period.

18. Occupation of the Premises and Allocation of Rooms

- 18.1 Only You and other Residents may use the Premises. You must never give your Premises keys/fobs/swipe cards to anyone else.
- 18.2 The allocation of accommodation is the responsibility of St Clare's. This does not give You exclusive possession of the Room. We have the right to re-allocate rooms or change rooms at any time. We will give You reasonable notice of this unless there is an emergency, in which case we may need to move you immediately.
- 18.3 If You wish to move rooms You may be able to do so after a reasonable period in residence. This is at the absolute discretion of St Clare's and is subject to availability of an alternative room. The Course Director has the final decision.
- 18.4 If You move to a different type of room You must pay the new accommodation fee. You will not be allowed to change rooms if You have any unpaid fees or charges.
- 18.5 If you are allocated a twin-room We have the right to decide who shares it with You.

19. Conduct

- 19.1 You agree:
 - 19.1.1 to comply with the Rules for Residences and with all other St Clare's policies and procedures at all times. We have the right to amend Our policies and procedures at any time.
 - 19.1.2 to observe fire regulations as instructed by St Clare's and as displayed in the Building;
 - 19.1.3 to comply with all reasonable requirements of St Clare's staff.
- 19.2 We have the right:
 - 19.2.1 to demand the immediate departure of any Resident or visitor who does not comply with Our policies and procedures.
 - 19.2.2 to access the Premises at any time and for any purpose.
 - 19.2.3 on giving You 24 hours' notice, to enter the Room for inspection and/or maintenance at any time (except in an emergency when We are allowed to access the Room at any time) but We will try to make sure that any inspection or maintenance works causes as little disruption as is reasonably possible.
 - 19.2.4 to amend Our policies and procedures (including the Rules for Residences) at any time. These can be found on the Student Portal.

20. St Clare's Obligations

Subject to clause 21 We agree to use reasonable endeavours to:

- 20.1 give You uninterrupted use of the Premises during the Booking Period except when we need access to perform Our obligations in this Contract;
- 20.2 keep in good clean condition the Premises, the outside of the Building, the structure of the Building, water, sewerage and drainage systems, telephone lines, broadband and internet connectivity, and gas, electrical and heating appliances in the Building;
- 20.3 have adequate insurance cover in place to make sure We can meet Our obligations under this agreement (including buildings insurance and public liability insurance);

- 20.4 make sure You are given clear and appropriate instructions for any equipment which You need to operate in the Residence;
- 20.5 provide information to You on how to make a complaint about matters relating to the Accommodation (details of the complaints procedure can be found on the St Clare's student portal).
- 20.6 provide You with information on:
