

English for Law - sample timetable

	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY
Week 1: Foundations of Legal English	Introduction to English for Law Gain a strong foundation in legal English by exploring key terminology used in contracts, courts, and legal discussions. Compare legal systems and analyse a famous case to see legal language in action. Through role-plays and discussions, you'll start using legal English with confidence.	Contracts & Legal Writing Learn the essential structure of legal contracts. You will practise analysing and drafting contract clauses, ensuring clarity and precision in legal writing. By the end of this session, you will be able to recognise common contract pitfalls and craft well-structured legal documents.	Legal Correspondence & Negotiation Draft clear and concise emails, memos, and letters, mastering the right tone for different legal contexts. Explore key negotiation strategies, using persuasive legal language to handle disputes and reach agreements.
Week 2: Application & Practical Skills	Courtroom Language & Advocacy Skills Step into the courtroom and practise the language of legal proceedings. Learn key phrases for presenting arguments, questioning witnesses, and making objections. Begin preparing for the roles you will take in our mock trial, applying your skills in a lively legal debate.	Case Analysis & Legal Reasoning Develop the skills to read, analyse, and interpret legal cases effectively. You will learn how to identify key facts, legal principles, and case outcomes, strengthening your ability to construct well-reasoned legal arguments. Through practical exercises, you'll write a clear and concise case summary and engage in discussions that challenge different interpretations of legal rulings.	Final Challenge & Mock Trial In the final session, you will draft a short legal document (such as a contract clause, client letter, or case summary) and present a brief argument in a simulated legal setting, demonstrating your newfound confidence in legal English.