

English for Exams (IELTS & Cambridge)

	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY
WEEK 1 Know the exam 14:00-16:00	Exam Navigator Unlock the format and structure of your exam — what's expected, what's assessed, and how to get ahead from Day 1.	Tune In, Listen Up Train your ears to listen for gist, detail, and speaker opinion. Get familiar with the listening test format.	Say It With Style Get to know the speaking test: the format, timing, and what examiners want to hear.
	Project Launchpad Start this week's self-study project.	Read Between the Lines Explore key reading strategies like skimming, scanning and matching headings using real exam texts.	Write to Inform Discover how to describe visuals, data or personal viewpoints clearly.
WEEK 2 Practice the exam 14:00-16:00	Reading Under Pressure Try a timed reading section with instant feedback. Learn from mistakes and beat the clock next time	Listen Like an Expert Work through exam-style listening tasks. Predict, check, and fine-tune your answers like a pro.	Talk It Out Practise speaking under exam conditions. Get real-time feedback on fluency and coherence.
	Present and Prepare Present your project from last week and start on this week's project.	Power Paragraphs Dive into Writing Task 2/Part 2. Build strong introductions and well-organised arguments in timed conditions.	Debate It! Step up for a team debate. Take a stance, support your ideas, and handle counterpoints like a future leader.
WEEK 3 Finetune the exam 14:00-16:00	Final Reading Boost Master your final set of reading tasks. Analyse question types and use last-minute techniques to gain an edge.	Pinpoint Listening Train your ear for accents, detail, and tricky distractors. Sharpen your skills ahead of the real thing.	Speak Like You Mean It Boost pronunciation and delivery. Practise the latter parts of the speaking test with structure and confidence.
	Compare and Contrast Present last weeks project and start to prepare for your debate.	Presentation Skills Share the relevant presentation skills that you have learnt during the course.	Final Debate & Wrap-Up Close the course with one last high-energy debate and group reflection. Celebrate how far you've come!